(7) The department may open the sealed adoption record or sealed record when a birth certificate in the adopted name was not issued and it becomes necessary to open the sealed adoption record to provide any information to the office of vital records to complete the birth certificate.

(8) The department, the department of general services, or their specifically authorized agents, may open the sealed adoption records, sealed records, or post-adoption records at any time it becomes necessary to perform any tasks related to the preservation of the records, and each department is specifically authorized to utilize any methodology that now exists or that may be developed in the future for the permanent preservation of a sealed adoption record, sealed record or post-adoption record, and they may open the records for the limited purpose of undertaking these preservation methods. This subdivision (d)(8) shall not authorize the release of any information contained in the records to any other person or entity except as specifically authorized by this part, or as may be directly related to the preservation of the records.

(9) After use of the records pursuant to this subsection (d), they shall be re-sealed and returned to storage.

(e) In the event of an appeal from any ruling of the trial court in the adoption proceeding, the clerk shall place the court's record of the adoption proceedings in a sealed file in a locked file or other secure depository or, in the event of the use of electronic storage, the records shall be maintained in a secure method of storage that restricts access only to the clerk and other persons authorized by the court. Gordon Browning dated June 12, 1951, shall also be made available to eligible persons in accordance with this part, whether such records were completed or sealed before, on, or after March 16, 1951, and whether any persons subject to the care and supervision of such agency or its branches were ever actually adopted, and to that end this is remedial legislation.

~~(2) Upon submission of the sworn statement and after proper identification of the requesting party, the department shall grant access to the records requested. Notwithstanding § 68-3-313, upon receipt of a copy of the sworn statement required by § 36-1-127 or upon notification from the department, the division of vital records of the department of health shall grant access to a copy of an adopted person's original or amended birth certificate.~~

A violation of this prohibition shall make the requesting party, the party's agents, or any person or persons acting in concert with them subject to the legal remedies pursuant to § 36-1-132.~~

~~(4) If the person eligible to request access to the records does state on the form a desire to contact any person who is eligible to file a contact veto, then the department shall search the contact veto registry to determine whether a contact veto has been filed or whether consent has been given for further contact with the person who is sought.~~

~~(5) The department shall only search for those persons with whom the requesting party seeks contact.~~

~~(6) (A) (i) If a person files a contact veto in conformity with this part, the contact veto shall, in addition, automatically protect and apply to the person's spouse, siblings or future siblings, lineal descendants and lineal ancestors and any spouses of those other persons, but may exclude from such protection and application, by specific reference, any such relatives or spouses where permission is given to the department in writing by the person filing the contact veto. ~~(ii) The person filing the automatic veto or giving consent to contact may vary or withdraw the automatic veto or consent that has been given upon satisfactory proof of identity and by making such request in writing to the department.~~

~~(iii) If a request is made by an adopted person or person for whom records are maintained as described in § 36-1-127(c)(1)(A), or such person's legal representative, to have contact with a person to whom the automatic veto under subdivision (a)(6)(A)(i) applies or to have contact with a person who is otherwise eligible to file a contact veto, the department shall attempt to contact those~~

~~(vii) The spouse of the person filing an automatic veto and the siblings, lineal descendants and lineal ancestors and any spouses of those persons, or the legal representatives of any persons eligible to file a contact veto, may also give written consent to the department for release from the automatic veto that may have been filed prior to such person's filing with the contact veto registry, and the person, or the person's legal representative, may alter or vary the automatic veto as it applies specifically to that person, and, if contacted by the department pursuant to this part in response to a search request, may agree to contact.~~

~~(b) (1) If a contact veto has been filed, the department shall notify the person with whom contact has been sought of the inquiry concerning the request for contact. Such person shall have the opportunity to confirm the veto, vary it, or withdraw it.~~

~~(2) If a contact veto that has been filed with the department remains intact or is filed as a result of a search pursuant to § 36-1-131, or if a consent to contact is altered to withdraw the ability to have contact, the department shall notify the requesting party of this fact and the requesting party shall not be permitted contact with the person sought.~~

~~(3) If the contact veto remains intact, or if the adopted person or a person for whom records are maintained as described in § 36-1-127(c)(1)(A), or such person's legal representative, refuses contact or refuses to release identifying information, the person making the request for contact or information may place such person's name, address and telephone number in the registry to request notification from the department should the contact veto be varied, altered or withdrawn or permission for release of identifying information be given, or such requesting person may, in writing, permit the department to release such person's name, address and telephone number to the person who had entered the contact veto or who had denied contact or who had denied the release of identifying information, and that person may contact the requesting person at such person's discretion without further involvement of the department.~~

~~(c) If consent for contact is shown from the registry records or is given by the person with whom contact is sought either by withdrawing or varying the veto, or if the adopted person or a person for whom records are maintained as described in § 36-1-127(c)(1)(A), or such person's legal representative, gives permission for contact or for release of identifying information, the department shall, in conformity with the consent or the varied or altered veto, notify the person making the original request of this fact and shall provide such information as may be available to establish contact or shall provide such identifying information as may be released from any record in conformity with this part by the adopted person or a person for whom records are maintained as described in § 36-1-127(c)(1)(A), or such person's legal representative.~~
